Mr. James Byrne writes as follows:want to tell you of the benefit I have derived from the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I am a hotel clerk 32 years of age and for four years have been at night work. Eating irregularly and trying to sleep in the daytime had made me a very weak man physically, and as thin as the proverbial whip. I was finally com-pelled to take to bed. I started to use your Pure Malt Whiskey and in 3 days I was back on my job.

"Be sure and say to every night worker that it is a Godsend. Tell them I am sleeping fine, eating with a real appetite and am regaining my lost flesh, which is the hardest thing for a night worker to do. I thank you again and again for Duffy's Puro Malt Whiskey."—James Byrne, 129 S. Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind.

No medicine has stood the test of 50 years like Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and always been found absolutely pure and full of good medicinal virtue. Men and women in all walks of life join in singing its praises as the true chair of life which invigorates body, brain and nerve.

Because there was need for that country to be covered by such a trait at such a time. Because we needed Oregon.

We carried with us all the elements of society, as has the Anglo-Saxon over. Did any man offend against the unwritten ereed of fair play, did he shirk duty when that meant danger to the common good, then he was brought before a council of our leaders, men of wisdom and fairness, chosen by the vote of all; and so he was judged and he was punished. At that time there was not west of the Missouri river any one who could ad-minister an onth, who could execute a legal document, or perpetuate any legal testimony; yet with us the law marched parl passu across the land. Abbey's Picture, to Be Hung in Penr sylvania Capitol, Holds Its Own. London, April 30.—The private view of the Royal academy pictures was held, and a large crowd of notable people attended. The enormous size of ladies hats and the brilliant colors of their gowns almost obscured all the pictures excepting those which were skied.

Edwin A. Abbey's picture, "William Penn's Trenty With the Indians," which is intended for the capitol at Harrisburg, Pa. alone held its own. It is a huge picture, towering from floor to ceiling. It is a tour de farce of brilliance.

Stirring Days in Suits

Ladies', Misses' and Juniors Garments Move at a Lively Pace.

Scores selected their Spring Suits last week---just what they wanted and at quite a saving--and this week's news is a repetition of the same story. The "why" of this successful sale is evident to all who have seen our stock. There seems to be a general feeling of surprise at the comprehensiveness of the styles and models, and much favorable comment is heard on the line of "out sizes" in models specially designed for stout women. At this time last year Easter had scarcely passed, and the fact that this is a mid-season reduction makes it very attractive from an economic point of view. We quote the prices again.
